EDITORIAL

In this edition, we report with a measure of excitement the first expansion of our ministry in recent years. We believe this is a testament to the prophetic word of The Lord to us about the spread of the ministry to various parts of the world. Unlike Apostle Paul in Acts 16:9 who had a vision of a man from Macedonia asking him to come over to help them, CHM got a message from a contact in Zambia asking us to come over to help them. You will find out more in this newsletter of what The Lord accomplished in Zambia when the invitation was accepted. God's work marches on and we are only too pleased to be useful labourers in His vineyard. The harvest is indeed plentiful but the labourers are few. We seize this opportunity, therefore, to extend our invitation to our readers to consider joining our growing army of volunteers. God bless you and happy reading.

CHM ZAMBIA

In our October 2016 edition, we reported that CHM received a message in the U.K. from Revd Chilekwa Mulenga in Zambia about our work with the sick. He had visited our website and read about the wonders The Lord is performing through CHM and was moved enough to make contact with us. The message centred around enquiries about the establishment of CHM in Zambia.

Following deliberation and careful prayerful consideration by the management of CHM UK, we are delighted to report that on the 22nd of June 2017, Revd Sam Ajibola, the President of CHM international travelled to Ndola, Zambia in Southern Africa to meet Revd Mulenga and his colleagues. The president was very warmly welcomed and given a taste of Zambian hospitality. The meeting turned out to be a meeting of like minds and he was able to see first-hand the amazing efforts that had gone into bringing the meeting into fruition.

On the 24th of June, the first full day of his visit, Revd Ajibola attended a seminar where he ministered to over 70 delegates drawn from different denominations in Ndola. The seminar took place at the School of Biomedical Sciences of Ndola Teaching Hospital. On the 2nd day of his visit, on the invitation of Pastor Malala Zulu, he ministered in the morning service at Pentecostal Assemblies of God Church to a congregation of about 150. After the service, Revd Ajibola joined the local hospital ministry volunteers to visit Ndola Teaching Hospital, a 2500 bed hospital, where they prayed for one hundred and ninety five patients eighteen of whom gave their lives to Christ. In addition, four of those prayed for testified to God's miraculous healing.

Revd Mulenga, the chief host in Zambia, serves as the hospital chaplain of Ndola Teaching Hospital, a role which provides him a very good opportunity to cater for the spiritual needs of the patients.

At the end of Revd Ajibola's visit, the volunteers in Ndola expressed the need for further training in future to help them function better in their role as CHM volunteers.

CHM Nigeria

In a bid to reposition branches for wider reach and deeper impact, the Management of CHM Nigeria began an initiative of rotating the hosting of their monthly prayer conference among local churches.

Their maiden edition was held on the 24th of June 2017 and despite the heavy downpour that morning, the turnout was very impressive. One of the great testimonies of the day was that of a 65 year old man who literally dragged himself to the meeting despite his failing health. He sat halfway through the conference not feeling great but by the end of the meeting he had begun to dance. He later testified to the healing power of God because by the end of the prayer conference he had begun to leap and jump. Thanks be to God for His healing power.

CHM UK

CHM attaches a lot of importance to the continual training and equipping of our volunteers whether in the UK or in other parts of the world where we are represented. As part of this personal and corporate development of our volunteers, CHM UK held its annual training day on the 17th of June 2017 at Emmanuel Church, Clive Road, Dulwich, London. The training was provided by Mr Femi Abiodun, the General Secretary of CHM International.

During the training, he stressed the importance of volunteers adhering to CHM policies when performing hospital and home visits and also reiterated the importance of maintaining confidentiality at all times when dealing with clients. He enjoined all participants at the training to take very seriously the enormous task of caring for the sick and vulnerable and the necessity of continual prayer and supplication in this regard.

Rev. Sam Ajibola, the President of CHM International who was also present at the training, spoke about the authority of the believer and encouraged all participants at the training to remain steadfast in their work as volunteers. He espoused the famous teachings of Christ in Mark 16:17-18 where He commissioned all believers to heal the sick. The training ended with a time of ministration and prayer for all the participants led by Rev. Ajibola.
