EDITORIAL

The song writer wrote, "O God our help in ages past, our hope for years to come..." The words of this song sum up our feelings as a charity. Our hope is firmly rooted in Christ the author and finisher of our faith and we are persuaded that He who began this good and enviable work in us will be faithful to complete it in His own time. Buoyed by this, we continue to reach out in love to those in need in our communities. It may sound like a cliché, but we are confident that our help is in the name of The Lord and His strength is made perfect in our weakness. Nothing we achieve as an organisation is possible without God's help. Therefore, we look forward to another year of possibilities because with Him all things are possible.

CHM India

The annual conference of CHM was recently held from the 3rd of March through the 5th of March 2019. It was well attended by over 2000 delegates. This was the first conference held without late Pastor Paul Livingston, the former chairman of CHM India, who passed on to glory last September. His wife, K. Sheebha Livingston, ably supported by a team of committed and faithful CHM India volunteers, have since taken up leadership of CHM in India and have been working very hard to keep things going. Reports reaching the headquarters here in the UK confirm that they have been performing extremely well as evidenced by the large turnout at the recently concluded annual conference where 192 people gave their lives to Christ. The free medical camp attended by five specialist medical doctors along with their medical team in the Nellore District was a huge success. Many delegates were attended to at the medical camp and the service provided was very well received and the communities chief and the beneficiaries of the medical camp expressed their heartfelt gratitude to CHM for providing the medical treatment for their community.

CHM UK

CHM UK was chosen as one of the recipients of the Co-operative community fund in 2018 following a rigorous application and selection process. The cooperative fund provides a good platform for successful charities like ours to highlight our social activities to members of the public. Members of the cooperative who shop in the co-operative supermarkets can choose to support any of the recipient charities. Every time they shop, a certain percentage of their spend is donated to their charity of choice.

On the 9th of March 2019, a rather cold and windy day, some of our volunteers proudly turned out at Coop Supermarket West Norwood, London for the first CHM awareness tea day to drum up support for our charity. Despite the inclement weather, the turnout was good and the day went very well. Below is the support CHM leaflet and some photos taken by our volunteers at the Coop Supermarket:

CHM Zambia

The demonstration of the healing power of God among our brothers and sisters in Zambia is now a matter of course and this is down to their dedication to the cause of our ministry. Their charismatic and energetic chairman, Revd Mulenga sends a monthly update of their progress to our international headquarters and it makes very compelling and inspiring reading. Below is a brief excerpt of these reports in the last three months:

- A lady who was admitted and needed a walking aid to move around was subsequently discharged following prayers and walked out of the hospital unaided.
- Following a week of prayer for patients on a ward with twenty patients, twelve of them were discharged following satisfactory recovery leaving just eight.
- A patient scheduled to have a surgical operation had it cancelled as he made a satisfactory recovery following intercession.
- Last December about 30 patients equating to almost half of a particular ward gave their lives to Christ and 17 patients received healing following prayers.
- The hospital chapel in Ndola Teaching Hospital that serves as the base for our volunteers and was in a state of disrepair has now been renovated and approved by the hospital authorities for use by our volunteers. CHM will now hold regular Sunday service there in addition to weekly use for ministering to patients and hospital staff.

In an effort to improve the effectiveness of their volunteers, the management of CHM Zambia successfully organised a training seminar on the 9th of March 2019. The seminar which was well attended and focused on sharpening the skills of the volunteers was overseen by Revd Mulenga, the chairman of CHM Zambia.

VOLUNTEER

Spotlight

My name is Lawrence A Fawehinmi, the Publicity Secretary for Christ Hospital Ministry (CHM). I have been in this position since 2001. I oversee the publicity and marketing of CHM in the UK. As part of my remit, I coordinate the CHM annual conference and prayer and fasting away day in addition to raising awareness of all CHM activities where possible. Most recently, I arranged the collaborative CHM awareness Tea Day on the 9th of March 2019 with Cooperative Supermarket (Coop) West Norwood, to raise funds for our charity. It was a huge success. I studied at South Bank University, with my first degree majoring in marketing and advertising. Couple of years after my first degree I decided to venture into hairdressing. Professionally I've been a hairdresser for over 25 years, 12 of which I spent running my own hairdressing salon. Currently, I work as a freelance hairdresser with the occasional dabble in property business which I hope will be my next career move. I was ordained as an Elder in the Apostolic Church in December 2017 and married to my dearest wife Titilayo. We are blessed with three beautiful daughters. CHM has been like a family to me, and I'm eternally grateful to God and CHM for providing me this wonderful privilege to use my gifts to serve God in this capacity.
